Brendan Martin

Brendan is an emerging local artist who lives in York Bay, Wellington. Following the death of his father (an accomplished artist and illustrator), Brendan was inspired to follow an unexplored passion that he had held for many years. He attended his first drawing and painting evening class at The Learning Connexion School of Creativity and Art in Taita in 2018. Brendan's love of art grew and he went on to complete the New Zealand Diploma in Creativity Levels 5 and 6.

Inspired by classical mythology, Brendan's art portrays subjects he has connected with on a personal level, where he has sought to unlock the beauty that he sees within them.

Brendan's latest collection of artwork "Seeing the Light" is on display at Studio Toru, 3 Oroua Street, Eastbourne from 21st April to 14th May, 2023.
